MARLOW BAND FESTIVAL REMINDER SATURDAY APRIL 10, 2010

Parents,

This is just a reminder for you about the upcoming Marlow Band Contest on Saturday, April 10, for all 6th grade band members. We will be performing in contest as a concert band and additionally some students will take part in the solo & ensemble contest.

Below is a schedule for the day:

7:30 am Meet at the DMS Band Room

7:40 a.m. Depart for Marlow High School
8:00 a.m. Arrive at Marlow High School and Warm-up
8:20 a.m. Concert Band Contest (Marlow Auditorium)
8:40 a.m. Solo & Ensemble Contests Begin
10:30 (approx.) Depart for Duncan
10:45 (approx.) Arrive in Duncan and Dismiss

After the entire group performs on stage, some individuals chose to participate in the Solo & Ensemble Contest. These take place in Room #1 at Marlow High School and start at 8:40 am. All our Duncan Students are back-to-back between 8:40 and 10:12.

Parents are welcome and encouraged to come hear the performances in the Marlow HS Auditorium as well as in the solo and ensemble rooms. If you plan to attend and your student is not playing a solo or ensemble they are free to leave with you, however we must have a note from you stating you are taking him/her home with you prior to the contest day. If we do not have a note, students will be riding the bus home with us and can be picked up at the DMS Band Room around 10:45. Please be at the school ready to pick up your student.

One more thing to note; any child who is failing any class as of April 2, 2010 will not be permitted to go to Marlow with the Band. We hope you understand the reasons eligibility rules exists and why we feel it is important to enforce them.

Thanks for supporting the DMS Bands and your student in Band. As always, if you have any questions, please contact us.
